SELINGSGROVE PROJECTS INC.

BUSINESS BEAT

Hello Readers!

Thank you for picking up the first issue of Selinsgrove Project's Inc. (SPI) first monthly publication, Business Beat. The purpose of this publication is to keep business owners and residents of Selinsgrove up to date on all of the projects and events going on in downtown Selinsgrove. We'd like to start off by introducing you to Lindsay Trick, Administrative Assistant for SPI. Lindsay has been employed by SPI since October of 2016. Since Lindsay came on board she has organized the SPI office and started working on the SPI archives. Lindsay handles the day to day operations in the office and works closely with President Carol L. Handlan.

In addition to working for SPI, Lindsay is also employed by SUM Child Development at the Mifflinburg Children's Center in the administrative department. A resident of Sunbury, Lindsay grew up in Snyder County. She is married to husband Nicholas, and has two "fur babies", Abby and Bella. In her spare time Lindsay enjoys reading, drawing and spending time with her family.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

- ◆ SPI Welcomes new board members
- ◆ Coffee & Conversation
- ◆ Volunteers needed
- ◆ Upcoming events

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that SPI's President, participates monthly with the GSVCC's Downtown Affiliates, which is currently comprised of 8 surrounding communities, who all work together on sharing ideas and promoting each other in the Susquehanna Valley region. An example, SPI represented Selinsgrove at the Milton Beer Festival by hosting a table, and showcasing Selins'Grove Brewing and distributed materials on our downtown businesses and events.

COFFEE & CONVERSATION

Want to know what Selinsgrove Projects Inc. does for the community? Do you have questions about our mission or upcoming events?

Stop by the Kind Café the second Tuesday of each month between the hours of 7:30-9:00 am and speak to a representative from SPI.

We welcome feedback and ideas from the community!

We are also looking for volunteers to serve on the SPI board and the following committees:

- ◆ Economic Revitalization
- ◆ Promotions
- ◆ Farmers' Market

Interested individuals are asked to call 570-541-9117 or email Lindsay Trick at selingrovesm@gmail.com.

SPI WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

At the April meeting, the SPI board of director's voted on the addition of two new members, Ann Scullin-Moyer and John Lazur. This was a welcome new addition to our board explained president Carol L. Handlan. "We are happy to welcome these new members to our board and I look forward to working with them closely in the future."

John is a recently retired local Dentist. In addition to serving on the SPI Board of Director's John is also serving as the chair of the Commons Committee to replace former Chair, Bruce Johnson. In his free time, John enjoys volunteering, traveling and spending time with his family and friends. John resides in Selinsgrove with wife Ellen.

Ann has lived in the valley her entire life. Ann spent 19 years as a paralegal with Legal Services, Inc. Currently Ann is an Associate Broker in residential real estate sales with Villager Realty. Ann resides in Selinsgrove with her husband Rick. In her spare time Ann enjoys gardening, playing golf, stained glass and helping out friends and neighbors.

RECORD BREAKING FESTIVAL

Saturday, September 23rd was a very busy day in Selinsgrove! It was an absolutely beautiful day for the 39th annual Market Street Festival. This was a record breaking year for both vendors and attendees. There were 163 vendors and over 12,000 individuals ventured to downtown Selinsgrove to enjoy the festivities.

This year's committee co-chairs Carol L. Handlan and Joyce Hendricks really pounded the pavement and solicited a great number of new vendors. Out of 163, 48 were first time vendors! In addition to the standby favorites, root beer floats and Duff's Kettle Korn, several new SAHS clubs and organizations joined the festival for the first time.
